This report represents year to date revenue loss of approximately $2814.00.

Jessie Rierson moved to accept the Treasure's report with Jim Doyle's second. Motion carried.

Committee Reports:

Scholarship Committee

Chairman, Mary Nell Doyle announced her committee's selection of Cristina Loscuito's application as the recipient of the 2013 SCLA Jim Graham Scholarship award. She noted a formal notification letter to Cristina copied to Bob Lyons, Treasurer and Nell Graham had been prepared and would be posted immediately.

Membership:

Karen Conyngham, membership secretary, reported 97 adult members and 13 youth members active in SCLA. Total membership is still dropping with only 3 new members this year and a loss of 17 renewals from her 2012 report.

Old Business:

Karen Conyngham, as ILR board representative, expressed her appreciation to the SCLA board for their February, 2013, vote to contribute $200.00 toward ILR annual membership fee to the U.S. Animal Health Association. ILR's request for contributing funds for the $600.00 annual fee generated specific income for dues through 2014.

Karen also announced overwhelming acceptance of the on-line Humming Herald by our membership and perhaps more importantly, usage of a "counting" mechanism that has shown an abundance of increasing non-member viewing (hits).

New Business:

Sharon Bramblett reminded the membership of Kid n Ewe November 8-10, 2013, in Boerne, Texas, and gave a brief re-cap of the event as well as plans her specific group have for a shawl preparation to be donated and utilized as a fund raiser for the Wilson County 4-H group headed by member and Region 1 director, Susan Leslie.

Karen Conyngham, shared two 100% true black llama knitted scarves and a neck warmer she and Sharon Bramblett prepared as a team with the membership. She will work toward potential sale with pictures and an explanation of each.

Karen Conyngham also shared Treasurer, Bob Lyons, concern over SCLA's requirement of 100 animals entered per sponsored show to receive the $1,000 "seed" monies vs. the $500.00 "seed" money for less than 100 animals. The fact that none of SCLA's sponsored shows of late have met the 100 entry minimum, some still expect to continue receiving that qualification amount as they had in previous years. There was minimal discussion of this specific issue but considerable input on low entry numbers at recent venues in our area. There was open discussion of ideas to increase membership and SCLA income from sanctioned venues to offset some "seed" expenditures.

Gerry Bruening announced flyers within current show exhibitor packets and also at their show stall as well as an additional e-mail blast for the Children's Medical Center Christmas parade December 9, 2013, in which they requested the presence of llamas. It is a nationally televised event.

There being no further new business, President, Sean Price ask for a self-introduction from the new board members and region representatives.

Jessie Rierson moved the meeting adjourn. Adryce Mathison seconded.
Meeting adjourned.
